Father-Daughter Dance invitations are going home today! Take a look below for details about what to expect at the event. Also, check out updates on Spring Fling and ways you can help the school's fundraising efforts.

Father-Daughter Dance

Father-Daughter Dance invitations are going home today! RSVPs are due February 18. We are so excited this event is back!

Here's what to expect for the night*:

- In accordance with the current school policy, masks are required when not actively eating or drinking.
- There will be assigned seating. Each table will have approximately four girls and four guests. The girls will all be from the same class.
- Although attire is dressy, we encourage girls to wear warm coats and consider leggings or heavy tights under their dresses. The space we're using has an attached outdoor patio outfitted with heat lamps and a fire pit. This area is adjacent to the indoor dance floor and DJ station.
- The dads and girls have spoken and we have listened! There will be no formal Lifetouch pictures taken, which means no long line to wait in.
- Several volunteers will act as the event's "paparazzi." There will be many photo opportunities and all pictures will be housed in a shared folder and distributed after the event for your viewing and printing pleasure.

*Subject to change based on possible updates to state or school regulations.
